

Way to the Conference

By plane:

The nearest international airports are Frankfurt, Cologne and Düsseldorf. From there you travel on by train. Travel times to Siegen by train are roughly the same (about 2 hours) from all airports.

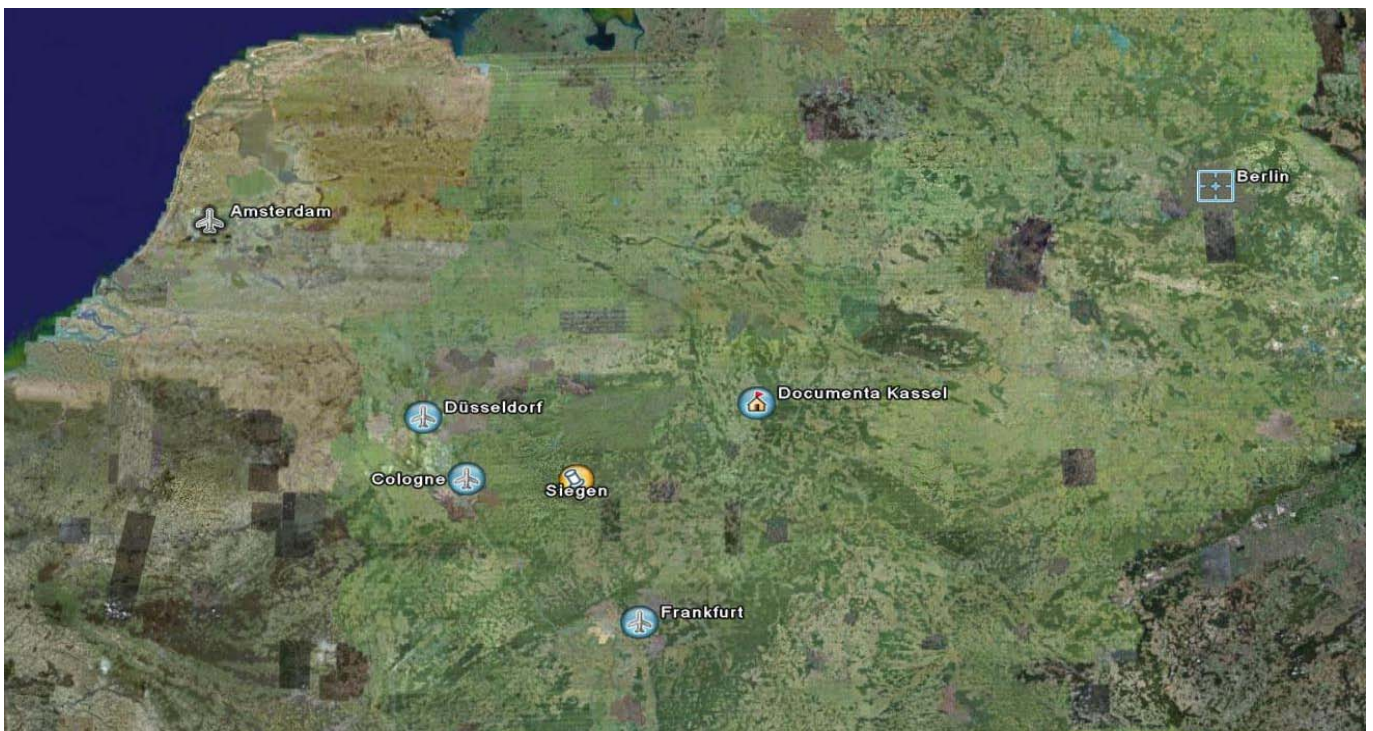

At Frankfurt: You go to the local railway station for S-Bahn and regional trains at Terminal 1, Level 1. Trains depart from platforms 1. You can get tickets at the Deutsche Bahn service center at the Frankfurt Airport, but there should also be a possibility to buy a Rail & Fly ticket in advance at your travel agency that allows you to travel by rail with Deutsche Bahn using your air ticket. At Cologne: Trains to Siegen are leaving every hour with one stopover at Troisdorf from platform 3.

By train:

Siegen main station (Siegen-Hbf.) can be reached from three directions: Cologne, Frankfurt and Hagen/Dortmund. Any further information can be obtained in English by the German Railway Corporation Deutsche Bahn: <http://reiseauskunft.bahn.de/bin/query.exe/en>

By car:

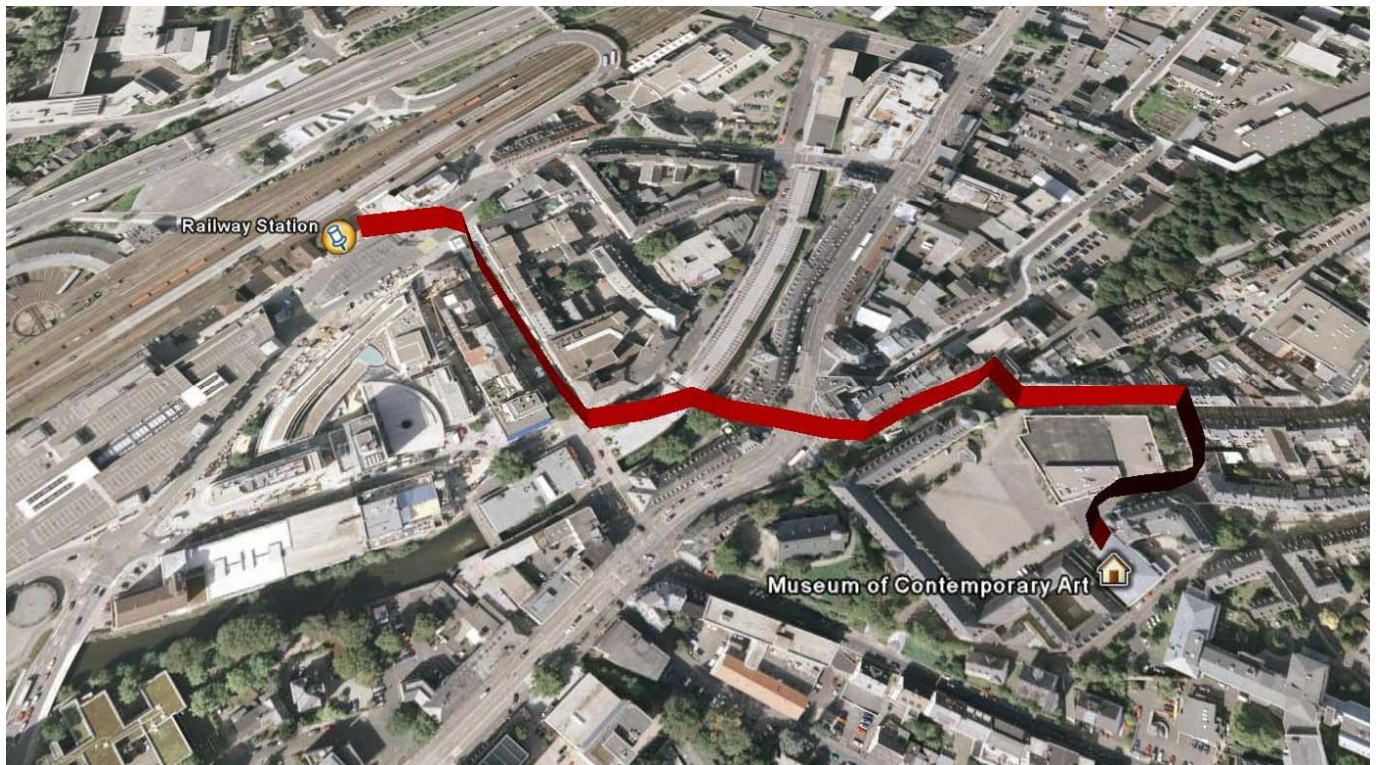

Take the Autobahn 45 and exit Siegen (exit number 21). Follow the B62 toward Siegen/Kreuztal/Netphen on the turnpike Hüttentalstraße and exit Siegen/Innenstadt. Proceed to Koblenzer Strasse and follow the signs to the Karstadt / Unteres Schloss parking facility.

Traveling Tip: Actually the well-known international art exhibition documenta 12 takes place in Kassel. See <http://www.documenta12.de>

By foot:

It's a 5 minute walk from Siegen main station: leaving the train station keep straight ahead through the Bahnhofstrasse pedestrian zone, then veer half-left over the Siegplatte towards the Koblenzer Strasse. Cross the Koblenzer Strasse towards the Kölner Strasse pedestrian zone and follow the Einkaufszone uphill. Turn right on Alte Poststrasse.
